

The Donegal Fiddle Tradition Workshop, Talk and Recital Saturday 25th April 2015 - The Wee Hall Culdaff

The third in a series of Inishowen Traditional Music Project workshops supported by Cairdeas na bhFidiléirí featuring the varying styles and repertoire in Donegal fiddling.

Workshops 11pm-1pm (Intermediate -advanced) Tutors are

Paul O'Shaughnessy, Martin Mc Ginley and Seamus Gibson.

This workshop is aimed at intermediate – advanced players. Booking is essential in order to facilitate levels. Workshop fee is €10 which includes admission to talk and recital. Students should bring a packed lunch.

Talk from 1.30pm-3.00pm Martin Mc Ginley will give an introduction to the varying styles in Donegal fiddle playing, and give a brief look at musicians such as Johnny Doherty, Con Cassidy, James Byrne who inspired and influenced many.

Recital 3.30pm-4.30pm. The recital will feature workshop tutors :

Paul O'Shaughnessy, Martin Mc Ginley, Seamus Gibson and will be joined by legenday Inishowen fiddler Dinny Mc Laughlin.

The talk and recital is open to general public. Talk and recital fee €5.

Everyone is welcome to join the family session following the recital.

Teas and home baking will be available for sale.

Workshop 11-1pm (fee €10 includes admission to talk and recital)

Talk 1.30-3.00pm, Recital 3.30-4.30pm (fee €5)

Family session 5.00-6.30pm (free of charge)

Bookings can be made with Roisin (087)7528639 or Clodagh (086)1522322

www.inishowenmusic.ie